Christian Tegethoff Talks About The Challenges In The HR Sector Post-COVID-19 At The Online Webinar Organised by The Belgian-Luxembourg Chamber Of Commerce In Russia

On June 25, 2020 Christian Tegethoff, Managing Director, CT Executive Search spoke at the online event organized by the Belgian-Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce in Russia (CCBLR) titled, Decoding COVID-19 HR Challenges.

Mr. Tegethoff addressed several burning issues, such as:

- How did COVID-19 affect the HR sectors in Russia, Germany and Eastern Europe (CEE/SEE)?
- What measures were taken by the governments and companies operating in these regions to retain employees and curb unemployment rates?
- Does the labour market currently belong to the employees or the employers?
- Will expatriates be returning back to Russia?
- What is the outlook for the HR sector in these regions post-COVID-19?

Oleg Prozorov, CEO, CCBLR asked Mr. Tegethoff to comment on the effect that Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning (ML) will likely have on jobs in the near future, while Stefan Van Doorslaer, CEO, AHLERS group asked about the prospects of being able to choose the best talent available for positions currently available on the market.

Present at the event were business owners, Heads of Belgian-Luxembourg Chambers of Commerce in Asia and the CIS, the Russian Ambassador to Luxembourg and top executives of Belgian, Luxembourg and Russian companies with business operations in these regions.

The complete webinar is available online Mr. Tegethoff's presentation can be viewed here.

The Belgian-Luxembourg Chamber of Commerce in Russia was also the official partner of the international survey conducted by CT Executive Search in May on the Effects of COVID-19 on the HR sector.
